

CHARLES ALPAUGH

August 16, 1936

Was a bus driver. Now a Station Master.

TESTIFIED (page 167 et seq.):

He was driving on Easton Avenue towards Bound Brook when he saw a Dodge Sedan on Easton Avenue near De Russey's Lane facing Bound Brook (167-8).

Also saw two or three people slide down a bank close to the Dodge Sedan which had no lights lit (168).

This was about 12 o'clock (169).

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Alpaugh was driving a public service bus filled with firemen returning from a celebration at Red Bank (170).

A Dodge Sedan was on the left side of the road as you face Bound Brook (171-2).

The Dodge was facing New Brunswick (173).

Did not see the license number, could not identify the people he saw coming down the bank even as men or women (173-4).

Dodge was on the west side of De Russey's Lane (175).

Alpaugh also saw a little dark green Cadillac Sedan ^{Coupe} well back on the New Brunswick side of De Russey's Lane with its lights out (175-6).

Did not notice any moonlight (176).
